Subject: A call for applications relating to the granting of two (2) Research Scholarships

Deadline for the submission of applications: April 26th 2018

➢ COLLEGIO CARLO ALBERTO

Hereby commences

the following competitive process for the awarding of 2 research scholarships:

Scholarship no. 1) having a duration of 8 months and worth a gross amount of EUR 15.000
Scholarship no. 2) having a duration of 8 months and worth a gross amount of EUR 15.000

The amount of the research scholarship will be paid out in monthly instalments.

This research scholarship, which is designed to promote the participation of young researchers, who have earned a PhD, to the LAW SCHOOLS GLOBAL LEAGUE research project:

Scholarship no. 1 - programme title: “Combating corruption through compliance policies”
Scholarship no. 2 - programme title: “New organizational forms of entrepreneurship in sharing economy age: legal challenges posed by Uber”

This notice is published on the website of the Collegio Carlo Alberto (www.carloalberto.org).

Research activities:
Scholarship no.1: the researcher should join the Department’s LSGL anti-corruption research-team to fulfil the target of the research. As established in the LSGL midterm meeting in Tel Aviv (February 2018), one of the 2018 target of the group is a comparative study about the relationship between internal investigation (corporate compliance) and police investigation on corruption misconducts. The researcher will draft a paper about the Italian state of the art on the topic to be presented at the LSGL Annual Conference in Madrid, July 2018 and will co-author the final version of the comparative study, which will be presented next year.

Scholarship no.2: the researcher should join the Department’s LSGL Uber research-team to fulfil the target of the research. As established in the LSGL meetings in Mexico City (July 2017) and in Tel Aviv (February 2018), one of the 2018 target of the group is a comparative study about the legal challenges posed by Uber in different countries. The researcher will contribute to draft a paper about the Italian state of the art on the topic to be presented at the LSGL Annual Conference in Madrid, July 2018 and will co-author the final version of the comparative study, which will be presented next year.

Research activities should presumably start by May 2018.
