Call For Paper

1st Italian Doctoral Workshop in Economics and Policy Analysis

This workshop aims at providing students enrolled in an Italian doctoral program with the opportunity to present their research and receive feed-back from junior and senior scholars. The purpose of the workshop is to foster the exchange of ideas among doctoral students at a medium/advanced stage of their research, with the hope that the workshop will become a regular feature of their annual calendar.

The workshop

The workshop is organized in parallel sections. Students are encouraged to submit ongoing research in the following areas:

- Education and Labour Economics
- Consumption and Savings Choices
- Political and Public Economics
- Monetary and International Economics
- Growth and Development
- Corporate Governance and Corporate Finance
- Economic Theory
- Industrial Organization

The workshop will also host a round table of Coordinators from Italian Doctoral programs in Economics, which is devoted to the discussion of the organization of Italian doctorates. There will also be active participation by students.

Scientific committee

Submitted papers will be selected by a scientific committee whose members are from the Dottorato in Scienze Economiche (DSE, a section of Scuola di Dottorato in Economia, University of Turin), PhD students and other Collegio Carlo Alberto resident scholars.

The venue

The workshop will be hosted by Collegio Carlo Alberto (Moncalieri, Turin), and accommodation will be provided for all the participants presenting at the workshop. Lunch and dinner will also be provided. There is no workshop participation fee. Further information will be soon available at www.carloalberto.org/idconference2008

The Deadlines

Please send your paper submission as a PDF file (a draft version will also be considered) along with a CV via email to idwconference2008@gmail.com. All papers must contain a brief abstract, the corresponding author's name and address and must be written and presented in English. Deadline for submission is April 30th 2008. Notification of acceptance will be communicated by the end of May.

We are looking forward to welcoming you here in Turin!
