PRESS RELEASE

The Collegio Carlo Alberto appoints an Advisory Board comprising academics, entrepreneurs, business leaders and institutional representatives

Torino, October 1, 2020 - The Collegio Carlo Alberto appoints an Advisory Board comprising academics, entrepreneurs, business leaders and representatives of institutions. The Board was established with the aim of assisting the Board of Directors to define strategic guidelines, and of fostering the communication with the stakeholders of the Foundation.

It consists of prominent figures who are connected with Torino either for personal or professional reasons, and who, at the same time, have strong international experience.

The Compagnia di San Paolo and the University of Torino are the founders of the Collegio Carlo Alberto. They support our institution, with the aim of strengthening and rooting in the City of Torino and in the rest of the country high-level research, education and dissemination in the fields of Economics, Social Sciences, and Law. The Collegio, thanks to its first-rate academic community, pursues the quintessential aim of attracting and retaining in our country researchers who would, otherwise, look for career opportunities abroad. The new Advisory Board will be of great help to the Collegio in order to attain these objectives.

The Advisory Board is composed of:

Domenico Siniscalco (Chairman of the Board), Vice Chairman, Morgan Stanley, Country Head of Italy and Head of Government Coverage EMEA; Delia Baldassarri, Professor of Sociology, New York University; Marta Cartabia, Professor of Constitutional Law, Bocconi University and former President of the Constitutional Court; Alberto Dalmasso, CEO, Satispay; John Elkann, Chairman, Fiat Chrysler Automobiles; Francesca Lavazza, Board Member, Lavazza Group; Giorgio Marsiaj, President, Unione Industriale di Torino; Carlo Messina, CEO, Intesa Sanpaolo; Andrea Prat, Professor of Business, Columbia University; Alessandro Profumo, CEO, Leonardo; Tatiana Rizzante, CEO, Reply S.p.A.; Guido Tabellini, Professor of Economics, Bocconi University; Gianluca Violante, Professor of Economics, Princeton University; Alessandra Voena, Professor of Economics, Stanford University.

Press statement by Giorgio Barba Navaretti, President of the Fondazione Collegio Carlo Alberto:

"I am deeply honored to announce today the appointment of a top-level Advisory Board for the Fondazione Collegio Carlo Alberto. I would like to express my gratitude to prof. Domenico Siniscalco, who has helped us in the nomination process and who will be chairing the Board. The Advisory Board will support the Board of Directors, during its three-year mandate, in consolidating the role of the Collegio towards its stakeholders in the academic community, in firms, and in institutions, in compliance with the Strategic Plan 2020-22. I am confident that the Advisory Board members, whom I would like to thank once more for their generous availability, will play a decisive role in successfully carrying out the ambitious objectives of the Foundation, thanks to their extraordinary professional experience and vision".
