DATA PROVISION REQUIREMENT

The provision of images and/or data contained in the statements made is optional. Any refusal to provide the requested data, consent to processing, or failure to sign the release form will prevent their use for the purposes mentioned above.

WITHDRAWAL OF CONSENT

The data subject may revoke any given consent at any time. Upon revocation, the Data Controller will, where possible, obscure or remove the images and/or any other data if they have already been published. However, the lawfulness of processing carried out before the revocation remains unaffected.

DATA RECIPIENTS

The collected data may be disclosed to:

- Authorized personnel (employees and collaborators)
- External parties appointed as Data Processors (e.g., service providers for video editing, etc.);
- Entities legally entitled to access the data in accordance with laws, regulations, and European norms;

Lastly, the data may be disseminated through the aforementioned channels.

EXTRA-EU TRANSFER

The Data Controller does not transfer personal data to non-EU third countries or international organizations. However, there is a provision for the use of cloud services, where data transfers may occur with providers in countries deemed to have adequate protection as per Article 45, or that offer sufficient safeguards according to Article 46 of the GDPR. For further details on these transfers or to request a copy of the safeguards in place, individuals are encouraged to reach out to the Data Controller at the provided contact information.

RIGHTS OF DATA SUBJECTS

The data subject has the right to exercise the rights recognized by Articles 15 to 22 of the GDPR, which include the right to access personal data, request rectification, erasure, restrict processing, and object to processing, where applicable based on the nature of the processing detailed in this notice.

To exercise these rights, the data subject may contact the Data Controller using the contact details provided above.

COMPLAINT TO THE AUTHORITY

The data subject has the right to submit a complaint to the Italian Data Protection Authority (art. 77 GDPR).
